Session of Legislature Called to Raise Money Ends Tuesday

Considerable concern existed in Canyon this week over the fact that proposal of the finance committee of the State Senate to reduce the appropriation for W. T. to $73,612. The State started an economy movement by the threat to reduce appropriations rather than pass additional tax measures.

President J. A. Hill returned from Austin Friday night, reporting the situation as serious.

When the economy bill was introduced to reduce appropriations, Lieutenant Governor Walter Wood ruled that this measure was not within the Governor's call for the special session. The Senate overrode this ruling and voted to take up the reduction measure.

Speaker of the House Bob Calvert ruled that the question of appropriations did not come with the call for the session. But the House voted Monday asking that the Governor be requested to submit the question. Attorney General Wm. McCraw gave the Speaker an opinion that appropriations were not within the call. The Governor later declined to officially submit the subject of appropriations.

The Senate has acted upon only one of the five appropriations bills—the departmental. The educational bill is still with the Senate committee, and no action has been taken upon the other three appropriations bills. The appropriations committee of the House has refused to act upon the departmental bill which the Senate passed.

Close observers of affairs in Austin are not alarmed over the situation as they do not believe that the legislature would have a chance to pass the appropriations measures at this late date of the session. However, the tension which exists between the two branches of the legislature and the Governor continues to exist on account of the (Continued on last page)

Carroll Works In New Mexico Cuarto Centennial Fete

Dr. H. B. Carroll is doing effective work in New Mexico to promote the Cuarto Centennial Celebration in 1941. Dr. Carroll was a member of the W. T. faculty during the past two years but is now teaching in the Eastern New Mexico Junior College at Portales. He spoke before the state Federation of Women's Clubs on Friday regarding the importance of the celebration.

Dr. Carroll has worked with Dr. L. F. Sheffy, Floyd Studer and Hermon Pipkin who have been closely associated with the movement to put over this celebration. Carl Hinton of Amarillo is assisting and hopes to assist Congressman Marvin Jones and the New Mexico delegation in congress to secure the passage of a bill to coin 50 cent pieces commemorative to this event. In case this is accomplished, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society will join the historical groups of New Mexico and Arizona in selling the coins and will put on a celebration commemorating the trip of Coronado through this section.

Miss Athalee Overton left Sunday to resume her work in Oklahoma. She has been home due to illness.

Mrs. A. B. Russell left yesterday afternoon for Ferndale, Wash., to be with her mother who is very sick.

Miss Wilroy Helps Stalled Motorist, But—

Miss Frances Wilroy, Home Demonstration Agent, wonders whether it pays to be kind to stalled motorists.

Her experience of last week certainly does not warrant her extending aid to the next man she finds with a stalled car.

When she stopped at a red light in Amarillo, a young man stepped from a big new car in front of her, and asked Miss Wilroy to give his car a shove.

When the light turned, she obligingly did so, but instead of the man keeping down the street, he turned left and caught the front bumper of her car on the rear bumper of his car. His car started as a result of the shove.

But did he stop to disengage the cars? Well hardly. Instead of this he drove down the street far in excess of the speed limit, and after travelling three blocks suddenly turned the corner. The bumper of Miss Wilroy's car was torn off, the front of the hood was damaged, and she was badly shocked as her car hit the curb.

For a wonder it did not overturn. The man did not stop.

With a mist falling she was unable to catch the number of his car.

Orton and Cox Returned From Austin After Old Bonds Are Taken Up Yesterday

Interest on $144,000 bonds of the Canyon school bonds was reduced from 5½% to 4½% this week when the old bonds were delivered to President G. W. Cox and Secretary S. B. Orton in Austin after the state took over the new bonds.

The refunding of these building bonds will save many thousands of dollars in interest before the bonds are paid off.

Owing to the fine investment feature of the old bonds, the holders refused to surrender them without a premium from the district. But the district was able to pay the premium considering the saving in interest rate.

The movement to refinance the bonds was started only a few weeks ago, and under the leadership of Mr. Orton and Mr. Cox the deal was put through in a comparatively short time.

The State Board of Education agreed to accept the new bonds at a lower rate of interest when a statement of the condition of the district was laid before it.

Mr. Cox and Mr. Orton returned yesterday from Austin bringing the old cancelled bonds.

Mrs. J. A. Hill, past district president, discussed the theme from the standpoint of the club president.

Mrs. T. B. McCarter discussed club ethics.

A number of women from Canyon attended the sessions.

John Schramm made a business trip to Santa Rosa, N. M., Sunday, and he attended a district meeting of Sinclair Agents at Lubbock Monday.

Will Attempt to Win First Homecoming Event In Five Years: Oklahoma Team Strong

Swiftly developing news at W. T. yesterday included a downward ticket price revision for the homecoming game next Saturday and a drastically altered starting line-up for the Buffaloes who must face the challenge of the Rangers from the Alva, Okla., Teachers College.

Tickets will be $1.10 for adults and 40 cents for children from 5 to 12 years old. However, any high school students coming as a group and identified by principal, superintendent, or coach will be admitted for 40 cents. Any ex-student who presents a membership card in the Ex-students Association will be admitted for half price, or 55 cents. These prices include tax.

The changes are being made to swell attendance at what is expected to be the most colorful and interesting homecoming in the history of the school. The homecoming queen and football queen and their parties will be presented at the game and a half a dozen bands will play. Another feature will be a parade of former Buffalo squadmen led by Mitchell "Bulldog" Jones. Three hundred and fifty men are eligible for this parade.

Adding to the difficulties of Coaches Al Baggett and Tony Douglas is the illness of Foster Watkins, chief passer in the Buffs' backfield. Watkins was in a hospital with his condition diagnosed as appendicitis. He will be out at least two weeks, and in case of an operation, for the rest of the season.

Lwood Dow is out with a broken hand. Butler will replace him. Other backfield starters will be Thomas, Washington, and Lyde. Bill Harp, who was badly pummeled in the Hardin-Simmons game, will be replaced at right tackle by Leon Williams, who has been groomed for work at end. Walling, Stephenson and Hinger will line up at the left side. Horton and Kendrick will flank Williams on the other side. Ed Williams will be at center as usual.

Game time will be 2:30 p. m. Crippled men have forced two or three changes in the Rangers' line-up but the Alva squad has more (Continued on last page)

The News has received word from the producers that another Cooking School film is now under way. "The Bride Wakes Up" was the first film of its kind ever produced, and it is produced next year that will carry much more interest, both as to entertainment and educational values. The News will secure this feature for Canyon when it is released by the National Educational Association.

Light Rain Falls in Canyon Friday, But Is Heavier Over the Plains Is Report

The first frost and freeze of the year hit the Panhandle Monday night. The temperature registered in Canyon was 36 degrees, but was lower on the North Plains. While the freeze was general over the Panhandle it was believed to have done little damage since such a large part of the feed crop had been harvested.

A light shower fell in Canyon Friday night, registering 10 of an inch of moisture. Many sections of the Panhandle received good rains, but the moisture again evaded Randall county. Cold and mist prevailed in this entire section from Wednesday until Saturday morning when the sun broke through and has been shining daily.

The Panhandle was treated with its first dust storm Monday as the wind swung to the north and the temperature dropped.

College Presidents Meeting at W. T. Forced Postponed

Presidents of the seven teachers colleges of Texas could not meet here last week end owing to the fact that all of them had been called to Austin by Governor Allred when the legislature threatened to reduce appropriations.

Dr. J. A. Hill was in Austin until Friday. It was decided that the meeting here would be postponed until a more appropriate time could be selected.

A group of local men were to attend a luncheon Saturday with the visiting presidents and members of the Board of Regents to hear the discussion of the ten-year plan for the teachers colleges.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

President Roosevelt's speech on world affairs, in which he castigated dictatorships and proposed a virtual quarantine of bellicose powers, is perhaps the most important international event of many months. It was greeted with almost unanimous praise in this country, by papers of all political affiliations. It charted a definite course which this government is apparently prepared to follow. It was direct, aggressive and, for the head of a government, extremely daring. In the view of the experts, it is believed certain that the British and possibly the French foreign offices were consulted before the speech was made, and that the plan of action laid down by the President is approved by the three great democracies of the world.

Mr. Roosevelt's suggestion is as simple as it is revolutionary. In effect, he said that it might be necessary to place a towering commercial wall around the nations which are responsible for today's war scares and war prospects. Peaceful nations would refuse to export to these countries, and they would not import from them. Little by little, as supplies on hand dwindled, the belligerent powers would find themselves lacking in the raw and finished materials which are essential to life both in peace and in war. Thus, faced with want and privation, they would find it impossible to pursue their dreams of conquest.

The President did not mention any country by name. But it was obvious that he was referring to three powers: Japan, Italy, Germany. Italy has taken over Abyssinia, in disregard of all treaties, by armed force. Japan is attempting to achieve a similar victory in rich North China. And Germany, with Hitler as its spokesman, makes no secret of the fact that it regards colonial expansion as essential.

The world effect of such a declaration of potential policy would have been nowhere near as great had it come from the head of any other country. We are remote from all other major powers. We are peacefully inclined. We are one of the two nations which are economically self-contained—that is, which possess within their territorial borders resources needed to provide every necessity and most of the luxuries of life. And, for the past few years, we have been the great question mark in international affairs—we have moved slowly, said little and have kept aloof from participation in world events.

The President's attitude, roughly described, is that we could not escape being involved in a major war, that we must therefore cooperate to prevent war. He gave approval to American co-operation with the League of Nations—which, significantly, is shunned by Germany, Italy and Japan. Out of this has come the belief that in the immediate future the world will be divided into two camps—the democracies and the dictatorships. On the side of the democracies there will also be the only dictatorship which is economically self-sufficient—Prussia.

The strength of an alliance between the democracies and the U. S. S. R. is impossible to exaggerate. From either the economic or military standpoint, they are immensely superior to the dictatorships. Japan, Italy and Germany must import tremendous quantities of the basic commodities in order to exist. They must export their own specialties, such as silk and olive oil and wine, in order to obtain foreign credits. Close the world's markets to them, and at the same time forbid them to buy in the democracies, and they would be ruined. And, should they elect to fight, every recognized military expert is certain that they would be doomed to quick and crushing defeat. The U. S. and England have the greatest navies afloat. Russia has the largest and best equipped standing army in the world. The dictatorships have nothing to match these instruments of force.

The President's address has already achieved results. Japan has started a campaign to justify in this country its war in China. Mussolini is talking more softly than is his usual wont. Hitler speaks of peace. And the League of Nations, given new strength by Mr. Roosevelt's stand, is in a far better position to be a major influence than at any time in the past five years, and to resurrect some of its lost prestige.

Summing up, a union of the democracies is designed to achieve two ends. One, to maintain peace. Second, if that fails, to make sure that the ensuing war will be swift and ruinous to the dictatorships.

THE AUSTIN SCRAMBLE

It depends altogether upon your point of view as to your thoughts toward the special session of the legislature which is coming to a close in Austin early next week.

If you have been receiving old age assistance and have missed your check because of the lack of funds in the treasury, naturally you wonder why the legislature does not increase taxes in order to carry out the will of the people in voting for this constitutional amendment.

If you are blind or are a dependent child, you wonder why the legislature refuses to put into effect the constitutional amendment which was voted a few weeks ago by the people of Texas.

If you are employed by the state you wonder how the state could repudiate the contract that it has made with you to work for it at a definite, stipulated salary under the terms of the appropriations bill which were passed by the regular session of the legislature and approved by the Governor.

If you are the owner of considerable property, oil wells, pipe lines, public utilities, natural resources of all kinds, you are pleased that the legislature will likely not increase the taxes upon your property.

If you are the average citizen, you wonder what the squabble is all about and why it is that intelligent Representatives and Senators cannot sit down with the Governor and settle the argument, passing a tax bill that will be just.

If you are prohibitionist, you wonder why the legislature should deceive you in presenting a constitutional amendment a few months ago that permitted the return of liquor to the state, but in no uncertain words banished the open saloon, but now seeks to return the open saloon under the excuse of making it a tax raising measure. Lifelong drys knew that they could not trust the wets when this amendment was proposed, but really thought that perhaps the ardent wets might be more discreet than to attempt to bring back by law the open saloon, which the constitutional amendment prohibits.

Yes, it is hard for the average citizen to see through the antics of the legislators, and comprehend what is going on in Austin.

Predictions are always dangerous, but The News is willing to risk the prediction that the legislature will not reduce appropriations. The departmental bill which was rushed through the Senate last week has been found by the House to be a mess of inconsistencies. A safe majority of the 31 Senators have educational institutions in their districts. They would not be willing to reduce appropriations of their own college. Twenty-five of the 31 Senators are lawyers, and would hardly vote to reduce the salary of a fellow lawyer. The Governor definitely announced that he will not submit the question of appropriations.

The Senate will probably pass Senator Clint Small's bill to reduce the amount of oil, sulphur and cigarette tax now going to the available school fund and place it in the general fund. This will build up the general fund $6,000,000 per year. The Supreme Court has upheld the intangible assets tax on pipe lines, which will add another million dollars to the general fund. These two items will raise half of the money Governor Allred has demanded.

The heart of the controversy is that the Senate wants a general sales tax, which would pay the state out of debt, but Governor Allred is opposed to this sort of taxation.

Unfortunately, the entire situation has declined into a political fight as political leaders jockey for future races. No doubt Governor Allred wants an excuse to run for a third term. If the legislature fails to pass any sort of tax raising measures, the Governor will feel called upon to fight for his honor. There are many political foes in the state who hope that Governor Allred will make the race for re-election as they wish to badly defeat him and thus minimize his threat to run against Senator Tom Connally in 1940.

It will not be long until the squabble is over. Meanwhile a vast majority of the people of Texas wonder why this squabble should exist.

"The Rest of the Record"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

The last week of the special session has rolled around and throughout the State there are sightless eyes, withered hands, and helpless baby arms raised in supplication to the Legislature of Texas. There are others going about the daily classroom duties of educating the youth of the State, bending under the weight of years, and wondering "if" a retirement system will be set up for the teachers.

These are the ones who have watched the legislative session from a distance. Unable to come to Austin, some unable to vote, they have waited patiently for the Legislature to do its duty and raise revenues for old age assistance, aid to the needy blind, dependent children, and for the teachers retirement fund.

There has been another group stalking the corridors every day since the session began, crowding the legislative galleries, and intently watching the efforts to raise revenues by taxing the pipe line companies, the oil, sulphur, and other natural resource groups.

It has been the biggest, most powerful lobby Texas has ever witnessed in Austin. It is confidently and complacently awaiting the verdict of "no taxes."

Meanwhile the destiny of our unfortunate people lies in the hands of the Legislature.

The people have been told that I want to lay heavy taxes upon all the people. That is not true. A "hullabaloo" against this session has been raised and the cry swelled in volume that we must not levy taxes for the social security program voted by the people. When did this "hullabaloo" first arise? I'll tell you when it was!

After the Legislature voted these appropriations and went home last June, every one knew then that we were going to have another session in September to raise the money to pay the bill. But when I announced six or seven weeks ago that I was going to recommend taxes on the big pipe line companies, and others who have been growing pompous and prosperous by draining our natural resources—then the hue and cry started.

When I said that I had recommended these same taxes before, that the program had been scuttled, and that I was going to find out at this special session who was running Texas—that's when the selfish interests, through their mouthpieces, started a campaign of propaganda.

They tried to make real estate owners believe that the people's program would raise their taxes; but they overlooked the fact that I had helped to lower these property taxes to the lowest point in over twenty years. They announced a great taxpayers march on Austin. 68 marchers finally rolled into Austin in Cadillacs and limousines, headed by a man whose chamber of commerce organization receives two thousand dollars a year contribution from the sulphur company alone.

The attitude of these people may well be judged by the leader they have chosen in the Senate against taxes for the needy. He is the same man who last year voted for a sales tax upon the poor; and then, when an income tax on the earnings of the rich was proposed, walked the floor and ranted that it would ruin Texas.

I'm not the only chief executive criticized for calling special sessions. When a few days ago President Roosevelt called a special session of Congress to help the farmers, he said: "I know that many enemies of democracy will say that it is bad business, bad for the tranquility of the country, to have a special session."

I'm glad the President has called Congress to try to do something for the farmers of the nation; and I have no apologies for calling this special session to help our own needy.

I say that when we have placed a just tax upon our natural resources, 85 percent of which goes outside the State, when we have passed an income tax levied upon the earnings of twenty pipe line companies who made over seventy-eight million dollars net profit in one year, when we have done these things, then it will be time to talk about a sales tax.

I didn't have to call this special session except for my conscience. I could have taken the easy route; and then these special interests would have called me great. But I've gone about the State, and I've seen misery and want.

I've done my part. I've called this Legislature in special session and made my recommendations. For these things I shall continue to fight. But the destiny of our unfortunate people lies in the hands of the Legislature.

Resolution Voted By Potter Exes At Barbecue

More than 500 Potter county ex-students voted a resolution presented by Charles H. Keffer urging that degree requirements of the college be changed to allow basic work in the college by students desiring to go in professions other than teaching. They also voted a resolution offered by Luther Roberts condemning the recent bill asking a twenty-five per cent cut in the appropriation for state institutions of higher learning.

The resolutions were presented at a barbecue at Jack Hall's ranch.

Mr. Keffer asked the board of regents and the administration of the college to alter its degree requirements from the present major in teaching subjects to a minor in those subjects which would enable medicine, law, journalism and other professional students to attend the college three years without loss of credit when they transfer to a specialized course in a university.

"It is important that Texas take care of her needy and destitute, but it is more necessary that they keep the educational institutions from becoming destitute. Today there is actually less than half as much money for each student enrolled," R. A. Stuart of the board of regents said of the recent proposal to slash the state appropriation to state supported colleges.

Talks were made at the meeting by President J. A. Hill, J. Lee Gilmore, Mrs. Earl Wyatt, John E. Hill of the board of regents, J. Fremont Mead, president of Amarillo College, John McCarty, editor and associate publisher of the Amarillo News and a former student, presided at the meeting.

Buffalo band under the direction of Prof. C. E. Strain, played at the meeting.

The resolution presented by Keffer follows:

"WHEREAS, West Texas State College was established by the State of Texas at Canyon in the year 1910 to serve a large area through the education of its youth and the training of teachers; and

"WHEREAS, Through the help of this section its attractive physical equipment has grown greatly but not adequately; and,

"WHEREAS, under competent direction and through the efforts of a loyal and resourceful faculty it has kept pace with or led the educational world in its appointed sphere, augmenting and changing its curriculum to meet the needs of its students; and,

"WHEREAS, its ex-students look to West Texas State for graduate instruction and to the institution for the education of their children, based on the requirements of our changing world; and,

"WHEREAS, the section it serves has through the years and under the impetus of vast development in its oil, agricultural and civic resources, grown enormously in population, number of professions and specialized needs of its leaders and citizens which it cannot well serve unless its curriculum is broadened so as to permit its students to prepare themselves for professions other than the teaching profession;

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

(1) That the president and board of regents of West Texas State College be and hereby are petitioned to broaden the course of study of West Texas College to the end that degrees will be granted upon courses of study that require only a minor in education; and

(2) That the president and board of regents of West Texas State College be and hereby are petitioned that the graduate department of West Texas College offer courses of study that will lead to the masters degree in subjects other than education; and

(3) That a copy of these resolutions be delivered to the president of West Texas State College and to each member of the board of regents."

I herd Joe Gill fussin or cryin one, about he had two cones a comin to him.

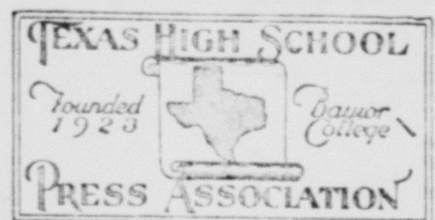

Folks I never saw so many boys gettin thar hair clipped. Uv course I think its kinda cute an have been thinkin about doin it myself, but I sherd herd sum gals threaten certain boys if they do get thar hair clipped.

SHALL WE HAVE SAFETY PATROLS?

Is there a need for a county or city policeman in front of our school at noon?

Every day, Mr. Oatis, a city officer, is in front of the building at noon to direct traffic. He is to be commended for his faithful help here. But couldn't high school students do what he does?

We have just completed the organization of a student council. Why couldn't the organization of a student safety patrol be their first project? Many schools have formed patrols among their students in order to have protection without outside help. Canyon High School may also have complete safety if the student body as a whole, led by the student council, gets behind a safety program.

In Sympathy

The staff of the Eagle's Tale, in behalf of the student body and faculty of Canyon High School, wishes to express its deepest sympathy to Tommie and D. A. Butler, juniors, and Dorothy and Mamie Butler, students in Canyon Grade School, and also to the Butler, O'Donald, and Gidden families because of the death of Harold Butler, brother of Tommie and D. A.

Program Is Planned For The Noon Hour

A definite program for the forty-five minute noon period each day has been worked out. After the students have finished their lunch, a radio will be placed in the auditorium for those who wish to sit quietly and listen to programs.

Four ping-pong tables are being put into the gymnasium for those interested in this game. The library will be open to the students for study and the reading of magazines and newspapers. Softball is played on the outdoor playground.

We Miss Him But Not His Smell

He died sometime during last week-end. There was no one to hold his poor head when he took his dying breath. He was not even in a bed, but was on the cold floor.

He gained recognition in the second year home economics class last Monday when Dannie Stewart and Fern Walters sniffed the air and then began looking for him. They found him under a sewing machine pedal.

But the poor, poor mouse! He didn't even look like himself because he had been dead so long.

Miss Nelle Freeman came to the rescue. She bore the body in a dust pan to the waste basket bier from which place it was carried away and cremated by Milton Kiker, the janitor. So the dead mouse was put away without a funeral service. His relatives are unknown. All that was left to remember him by was a terrible smell in the home economics room.

New Editors of Paper Named

Lillian Chambers, editor of the Eagle's Tale, Marie O'Donald, managing editor, and Miss Lois Goodrich, sponsor, met Thursday afternoon to select new officers for the Eagle's Tale. On Monday afternoon the Press club completed the organization with election of a secretary and a treasurer for the club.

Clarence Zachry was selected as sports editor. He is to assign all articles on sports, clip all sports stories, keep the sports file, and write some of the sports stories himself.

Margaret Stewart is the new exchange editor and is to write all letters for exchanges of papers, and keep the exchange list active.

Carl Cone, business manager, attends to all business and financial matters for the Eagle's Tale.

These officers have been selected for the semester. Others may be selected next semester.

Renna Beth Bellah was elected secretary and Hudson Prichard elected treasurer at the meeting of the club Monday afternoon.

F. F. A. Notes

The Canyon Chapter of Future Farmers of America met Wednesday night in the vocational agriculture room to bring before the chapter the objectives for the year.

The members decided to have a Father-Son Banquet again this year, since everyone seemed to enjoy the one held last year.

The Chapter voted to have an F. F. A. basketball team and also to sponsor a basketball tournament this year. Milton Morris, sponsor, was elected to be the coach with Jack Middleton acting as his assistant.

They decided to have a sheep show this year and have a meat cutting and butchering demonstration for the boys and their fathers. They also chose to have a grain judging school, since they felt they knew little about judging.

The Chapter plans to start the brooder and raise chickens for the Father-Son Banquet.

Marie O'Donald was elected Chapter Sweetheart.

DRAMATICS CLUB SELECTS CARNIVAL BOOTH

The dramatics club met Friday to decide on a booth for the Halloween Carnival. Several suggestions were made and Sue Terry, president, appointed a committee to select a booth. Another committee was appointed to put up the booth.

Because of the confusion in carrying out club business, Miss Helen Anglin, sponsor, suggested that in the next meeting parliamentary procedure should be discussed. Charlotte Beth Henderson volunteered to look up information on the subject and be prepared to discuss it at the meeting tomorrow at the activity period.

We understand there is a movement being sponsored by Headline Writers' Local 407 to take the day off should Mile Jadwiga Jedrzejowska win the tennis tournament at Forest Hills.

The English woman who complained she lost 20 pounds at the race track betting booth could clean up if she could put her experience into the form of a recipe.

It was at the lawyer's club banquet that an attorney told of his wife feeding him canned beans for five straight days before he demanded a change of venue.

By Martha Frances Campbell
"Here y'ar, folks, the One-and-Only Madame Zazelle! She reads your mind, foretells your future, and patches up your love-lorn problems. Only 10 cents, folks, one tenth of a dollar to receive the thrill of a life time. Step right up folks—who'll be first?"

And so, as another year passes and the last days of October approach, participants in the annual P. T. A. Halloween Carnival of Canyon High School polish up their "barking" arts, megaphones, masks, and costumes, and prepare for the Halloween fun! Good people of Canyon are saving their pennies for this gala affair, sure that the magic of its many new attractions will make of them new personalities.

Date Changed
The date of the carnival was changed to October 28. Otherwise it would have conflicted with the football game of October 29.

Before the various events begin, everybody will be requested to assemble in the high school auditorium where the primary and intermediate grades will give a short program fitting to the occasion.

Program Ends

Then, at the magical moment when the program ends, after the savory aroma of frying hamburger meat has lured the masses into the clutches of a 10-cent hamburger, and unless some hideous bug-a-boo contravenes, the big event of the Carnival will take place in the grade school gymnasium. And alas! Gentle reader, heaven only knows what amusing (perhaps embarrassing) experiences you shall have in those booths! But those who appreciate ingenuitly readily admit that if the booths are as clever as they were last year, this Halloween Carnival will be an excellent way to have a riotous good time.

Queen Crowned

At last, as the clock strikes some deadening hour between dark and dawn, the booths will close and the attention of the masses will be directed to the high school once more. There (for a small extra fee) everyone may witness the stunts, sponsored by various town organizations, and the program's climax, the crowning of the Carnival Queen. Ah, you poor judges! Here's hoping you don't acquire an attack of acute indigestion in your head. Your job of choosing the most entertaining stunt isn't going to be quite as easy as usual. The stunts (so it's said) are going to be unusually clever.

Well—
October 28
Is the date
And you can't
Be a minute late
In your gayest state
The Stars will fate
A super-gobolicious evening!

Sixth Grade Has Rare Project

The Sixth Grade has been employed in unusual projects during the last week.

The 6A gave a flower show and free exhibit in the Grade School Library, October 13. They invited all the grades to see it.

This exhibit ended the project of "Trees and Flowers of the World" that 6A had been studying.

The 6B made five checkerboards from beaverboard last week. The checkers were made of plywood and painted with ink. The boards were colored with crayons and shellacked. These are to be used in the gymnasium on days when the weather is bad and the students cannot play outside.

HOBBY CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS, ABBOT, PRES.

Perrell Abbott was elected president of the Hobby Club at a meeting Friday in the Manual Training Room.

Other officers elected were: Vice president, Stuart Condron, and secretary and treasurer, E. W. Woods.

The Hobby Club is new in Canyon High School. Club meeting will be held every Monday and Friday in the Manual Training room. Milton Sanders is sponsor of the Club.

BROWN WILL TELL OF TRIP

Gerald Brown, teacher of Civics and American History, will tell of his trip to Mexico City this afternoon at 2:35 o'clock in the high school assembly. The assembly is open to the public.

Toughest problem of the year was that of the western nudist: convention deciding where delegates should pin their convention badges.

The shortstop was tossed out at second and realized sadly as he walked to the bench, that after, all, there's no base like home.

The path of progress might be a lot easier if women didn't have to worry every time science comes along with a new wrinkle.

MARIE O'DONALD

Marie O'Donald was elected Chapter Sweetheart of the Canyon Chapter of the Future Farmers of America last Wednesday evening. The Chapter Sweetheart is to be introduced at the annual Father-Son Banquet and is also to help the boys with the planning of menus for the banquet and other such occasions.

Marie is managing editor of the Eagle's Tale, pep leader of the pep squad for the past three years, pianist for the junior homemakers, carnival queen from the senior class, and secretary of the senior class.

Hinkle Speaks To Parent-Teachers

"We have assumed for many years that our chief problem is educating the young, but today it seems increasingly plain that education of our adults is fully as important," said Olin Hinkle, journalism teacher at West Texas State Teachers College, in his talk to the Parent-Teachers Association, Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium.

Mr. Hinkle talked on "Successful Living." He discussed health, education, acts, and recreation. On the subject of health, he talked about complete relaxation and how to relax. He spoke of Uncle Tommy Clark and his violin to illustrate his point in arts. "There is no age limit in music," Mr. Hinkle said, "schools are becoming more and more the center of activity with more adult participation in the program."

CLASSES PLAN FOR P. T. A. CARNIVAL

Last Wednesday the classes met for meetings and made plans for the P. T. A. Carnival and discussed other business.

The Seniors ordered their rings. The girls' rings will cost $10.10, and the boys rings will cost $11.00. Natalie Flesher gave a description and talk about the rings. The rings will be oval and have a mounted Eagle in the center. They also elected Marie O'Donald for their candidate for Carnival Queen.

The Juniors planned to sponsor a bingo stand at the Carnival. The Sophomores also planned a booth.

Billy vs. Billy

Billy has blond hair and blue eyes, but so does Billy.

Billy started to school here in the first grade, but so did Billy.

Billy finished grade school in 1934, but so did Billy.

"I am going to vote for Billy for student council president, because he is a senior and is a liberal," said a freshman to a freshman Monday.

"Well, I plan to vote for Billy because he is a senior and a conservative," came the quick freshman retort.

At last the race is on between Billy Black and Billy Sternberg for student council president. But one thing is sure, that Billy will be president unless a dark horse shows up.

GERALD EARL IS NEW SON OF EX-STUDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Laughery are the parents of a 7½ pound son, Gerald Earl, born last Thursday at 2:30 o'clock. Both Mr. and Mrs. Laughery are ex-students of Canyon High School. Mr. Laughery was graduated in '33 and Mrs. Laughery, in '35.

Forest Hill, ex-student of last year, now attending Texas Technological College in Lubbock, visited in Canyon over the week end.

EAGLES DEFEAT VEGA, 12 TO 0, SATURDAY

The Eagles defeated the Vega Longhorns 12 to 0 to advance one step toward sectional and district honors at Buffalo Field Saturday afternoon.

It was the Eagles' first conference game, and Coach George Caviness' Longhorns first defeat this season. The Eagles scored in the second and third quarters. Ray Ford Rusk, Eagle captain, D. A. Butler, and co-captain Fairy Hill were the standouts of the Eagle offense.

D. A. Butler, Eagle fullback, scored the first Eagle touchdown in the second quarter. The Eagles got three trials for the extra point because Vega was off-side twice, but the kick went wide. Ray Ford Rusk ran 26 yards to score the second touchdown in the third quarter. Rusk failed to convert from placement.

First Quarter

Opening the game, Rusk kicks to the Vega 15 yard line and Marie returns the ball to the Longhorn 25. After three line plays, Vega punts to the Eagle 30 yard line and the ball is returned to the Eagles 41. Ford returned the punt, kicks over the Vega goal. Halliburton slips through the Eagle line for a 30 yard gain, but the Longhorns lose the ball on downs. Taking the ball on the 44 yard line, Ford punts to the Vega 15. After trying one play, Brents kicks out on the Eagles' 42 yard line. Reaching the Vega 5-yard stripe on a series of line plays, the Eagles are held for downs.

Second Quarter

After trying one line play, Brents kicks to the 50 yard line from his own 5, and the Eagles return to the Vega 38. With every member of the Eagle backfield carrying the ball, the Canyon squad opens a drive which carries them to the 6-yard line, and the ball is returned by Brents to his own 31. Brents' pass is intercepted by Ford, who runs from his 40-yard line to the Vega 40-yard line. After a series of plays the Eagles lose the ball on the Vega 41-yard line. Brents kicks over the goal line from the Eagles' 43-yard line. Eagles take the ball on their own 26 yard line, and, after one first down, put the ball on their own 45.

Third Quarter

Rusk kicks to the Vega 10-yard line; the ball is returned to the Vega 23 by Marie. On the third down Brents punts from his own 29 to his 46. Hill runs 26 yards around left end. Ford fumbles and Vega recovers on Eagles' 21-yard line. After Vega makes a first down, Brents punts from the Eagles' 35 to the 50-yard line. The Eagles try three line plays. On the fourth Ford's punt is blocked by Denny. Vega loses the ball on downs. Ford punts from his 36 to the Vega 20 yard line. On the third down Brents kicks to the Eagles territory. The Eagles are held for downs, and Ford punts from the 43 to the 10 yard line, where Marie is downed. On the second down Brents kicks from his 13 to the 30. On the Eagles' first down Rusk runs 26 yards to score the second Eagle touchdown. The kick from placement is not good.

Fourth Quarter

On the kick-off Rusk kicks to the Vega 16. The ball is returned to the Vega 35. Vega loses the ball on downs. A series of line plays nets the Eagles 5 first downs and carries them to the Vega 4-yard stripe where they are held for downs. Brents punts out of bounds on the Vega 21 yard line. The Eagles push the ball back to the Vega 14 where they are held for downs.

The Eagles made 14 first downs to the Longhorns' 4, and gained a total of 200 yards to their opponents' 87.

Because of the recent sorrow of Tommy and D. A. Butler, the game was dedicated to them.

Ex-Students Will Attend Homecoming

The students of Canyon High School will start homecoming with real school spirit in a packed auditorium at assembly, at 1:30 o'clock, November 5. All will be rooting for the Eagles, who will clash with the Dalhart Wolves Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Buffalo Stadium.

After attending the game at Buffalo Stadium, ex-students will go to the Presbyterian Church where they will find entertainment at a banquet at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Archer of McAdoo are visiting relatives in Canyon. Both are ex-students of Canyon High School.

Claudine and Maurine Thurman from Ropesville, Texas, enrolled in school last Monday. Claudine is a freshman and Maurine is in the seventh grade.

Garl and Betty Joe Cone visited their grandmother, Mrs. G. J. Cone, in Dimmitt over the week end.

Canyon Eagles Will Tackle Happy Cowboys Tomorrow Afternoon

Lose Something? Ask Press Club

The Press Club which is sponsoring a lost and found department has already been responsible for the losing and finding of several articles, but it guarantees the eventual return of lost articles if the owner is patient enough in his waiting.

On Monday night as the members took time off to eat, they used Hudson Prichard's knife to spread peanut butter on crackers.

The next morning Hudson reported the loss of his knife. The missing article was searched for. It could not be found.

Taking time out for eating last Monday night, a member of the Press Club looked in the peanut butter jar and presto! There was the knife! The week in peanut butter had shined the blade, and after the knife was washed, it was good as new.

Band Makes Plans For Coming Year

The Canyon High School Band has set up definite plans for the year, is growing, and is going to play for the West Texas State Teachers College homecoming next Saturday. The band is to be admitted to the football game free.

Other bands have also been invited and if a sufficient number accept, plans will be made to have a massed band. Marshall Riemenschneider, director, says that there are several members of the second band that are progressing very rapidly and probably will be in the first band next semester. With this addition the band will have about 50 members.

Renna Beth Bellah has been selected to play the bell lyre as soon as it arrives.

Several contests are now in progress. A practice contest between the two classes with the loser entertaining the winning side is proving successful, according to Mr. Riemenschneider. A letter is now being offered to those who fulfill the following requirements:

Pass sight reading test.
Four hours home practice per week.
Show ability to play complete chromatic scale within his own range.
Play solo in public.
Be present at all public appearances unless furnishing an acceptable reason.
Most important: Show a true band spirit.

Gridiron Gossip

After the Eagles defeated the Longhorns last Saturday, they are 1000 per cent in the conference standing.

Next Friday evening the Eagles will tackle the Happy Cowboys at Happy. The Eagles defeated the Hereford Whitefaces 12-0 and the Whitefaces beat Happy 18-6. According to the score Canyon has a 24 point better team than Happy. Last year the Eagles scored a decisive victory over the Happy Cowboys.

Other Class B scores of importance over the week end were: McLean defeated Memphis 21-6; Floydada beat Lockney 12-2; the game was played in a cow pasture, because of illness near the regular field.

Farwell beat Dimmitt 27-0. Lakeview scored an 18-12 victory over Wheeler. Wellington defeated Paducah, 47-0. The Phillips Blackhawks of Whittensburg beat Groom 44-6. Hereford defeated Friona 14-0. Panhandle beat Claude 24-14.

Ray Ford Rusk and Jimmie Carr have started a new fad of having their hair cut short. Most of the other football boys are following suit. No one knows the reason for this, but it is supposed that it is to prevent the opponents from pulling hair.

Claudine and Maurine Thurman from Ropesville, Texas, enrolled in school last Monday. Claudine is a freshman and Maurine is in the seventh grade.

Garl and Betty Joe Cone visited their grandmother, Mrs. G. J. Cone, in Dimmitt over the week end.

The high flying Canyon Eagles will journey to Happy tomorrow to tangle with the Happy Cowboys.

The Eagles, undefeated and scored on only once this year, are doped to win. The Cowboys have been working for the past two weeks without playing a game and will put up a real fight against the Eagles.

The Eagles are on top of the conference in the north half of the district after defeating Vega 12-0 last week.

The Cowboys will be trying very hard to get even for the 25-12 whipping given them last year by the Eagles.

The probable starting lineups are:

Canyon	Happy
Vandergriff	Simms

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin.—Responding to a personal plea from the floor by Speaker Bob Calvert to compromise and bring out a tax bill, the house of representatives settled down to work this week. It passed, after three days of hectic debate, an omnibus tax bill increasing natural resource levies 25 per cent, instead of the 46 per cent specified in the original bill, and sent the measure to the senate.

Then the house tied into Emmett Morse's bill to legalize sale of liquor by the drink in wet counties, after approval by voters at local option elections. Two days of bitter debate ensued. The bill finally passed, 65 to 49.

Austin was agog with whispers of a "trade-out" between advocates of the liquor bill and the Allied "more taxes" bloc. The liquor forces were in position to block action on the tax measure, but Morse gracefully stepped aside until after the tax measure was disposed of, thus lending color to the trade-out rumors.

A Long Road

With but nine more days to go at the week end, however, both measures faced a rocky road in the senate, with the final outcome problematical. The senate, if it passes the tax bill, will certainly scale down the rates, so that the yield of five millions estimated under the house bill, will be cut sharply.

ly. But the best guessers were of the opinion that the senate, unless the house passes its bills cutting expenditures of state departments upwards of $5,000,000 annually, will never approve the omnibus tax measure. And the outlook in the house for the expense cutting bill was decidedly not hopeful.

Bitter Debate

The liquor bill stirred up the bitterest debate in years. Debate was shut off, but house dries, led by Bryan Bradbury, of Abilene, Harry Graves of Georgetown, Dallas Blankenship of Dallas, W. E. Jones of Jourdanton, Ross Hardin and others, filibustered for hours, making ringing prohibition speeches under the right of members to speak at any time on "personal privilege." The record vote by which the bill finally passed was undoubtedly a potent document in next July's legislative primary races, and many a member will find this the issue when he comes up for re-election. Morse's bill, as finally amended by the house, would yield $2,500,000 annual revenue, carrying a 20 per cent sales tax. What the senate will do with it is problematical, but if the senate wants to avoid action on tax bills, the bill will furnish a fine vehicle for endless debate in the upper house. Dries insisted the governor will veto the measure, if passed by the senate, while wets were equally confident he wouldn't turn down $2,500,000 new revenue. A court test to clear up the dry contention that the bill violates the constitutional prohibition against open saloons is certain, if it becomes law.

Thompson Is Honored

The interstate compact of oil states broke a precedent and unanimously re-elected Ernest O. Thompson, Texas oil commissioner, chairman for another year, at its Houston session, in recognition of his fine work as America's No. 1 oil conservationist.

"Texas does not want to make money out of war," Thompson told the oil men. "We do not desire to sell our oil to be used for the production of misery and death. We want plenty of oil to defend our own country, but we certainly do not favor increasing the allowable to permit Japan to run China off the map." And, with a fourth of the world's supply of potential oil reserves, the Texas commissioner's attitude may be a deciding factor in the Far Eastern conflict.

Simmons Football Squad Runs Over Buffs Friday Nite

Hardin-Simmons' Cowboys exterminated the West Texas Buffaloes on Buffalo Field's slow turf Friday night in a 40-0 rout. The visitors packed a style of running and lateral assault that literally befuddled the Buffs for two scores in each of the first three quarters.

After the third running play of the first canto the outcome of the feud was never in doubt. The Klumbrough men swished through the line for 304 yards from scrimmage, and tabulated six pass completions for 105 yards. One aerial connection, Mahuren to Davis in the first quarter, set matters ablaze when he made a remarkable catch over the line and loped ahead 45 additional paces for the second score.

Knocked around at random for three quarters, substitute back Odell Washington of the Buffs raised his name for recognition as a ball carrier when he launched the only important scoring threat. Catching Hinrich's kickoff on his own three midway in the third quarter, Washington angled to right of the field, found the opening of his teammate's perfect blocking, and thundered down the middle untouched until he was brought down from behind by Neal Davis, vigilant Puncher wing-man, who is rated as the best opposing end the Buffs have opposed since St. Benedict's "Little All-American" Leo Deutsch. The bid was halted on the five from a slight relapse that he suffered last Wednesday. We hope he will soon be able to leave the hospital. Mrs. Schneider and Bernard visited with Leonard Sunday.

Bars Down Instead of Up For Exes at Homecoming Clubs

yard stripe after four running plays accounted only nine yards.

Laterals, as employed by the Cowboys, were executed with consummate skill on numerous occasions when the ball-carrier was considered to be downed only to release an underhand pass that caught the locals off their guard. Early in the game Headstream, Cowboy back, slipped into the secondary and on being tackled handed off to guard Vestal Newberry who carried on to the 34 for a 36 yard pickup.

The Bison cause was led by blocking back Matney and tackles William Harp and Lother Stephenson. Repeatedly, Stephenson broke into the enemy backfield, and would have dropped Cherry and Company for many losses had he not been handicapped by a broken hand sustained in the T. W. C. game two weeks ago.

The loss of Co-Captain Lwood Dow early in the game was a severe blow to the Buffs' running attack. His broken hand may keep him on the sidelines for two weeks. William Harp, mountain-like Buff tackle, received side injuries and possibly two broken ribs, but finished the game, turning in a brilliant defensive performance.

Automatic Gear Shift Most Outstanding Development in the Automobile of 1938

MADAME, your car is ready—1938 model.

And when madame seats herself behind the wheel she'll find in nearly every case, a larger, more graceful, and much easier-to-handle vehicle.

The public will get its first preview of 1938 automobiles at the New York Auto Show which starts Oct. 27 and continues until Nov. 4.

There, for the first time, will be placed on view every new car in the standard market.

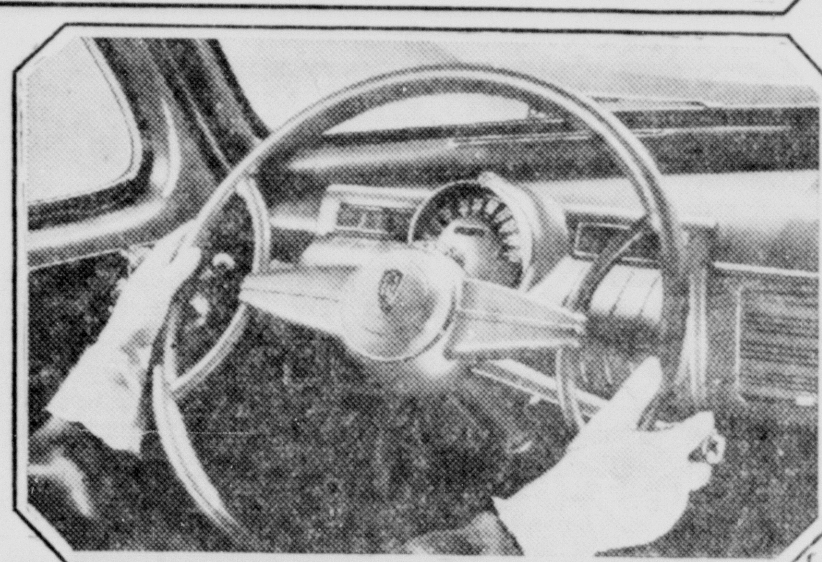

Few revolutionary changes will be noticed in design, although streamlining continues its quest for ultimate perfection. Many of the higher-priced cars, however, will have a longer wheelbase. The Cadillac V-8 will jump to 132 inches, and Packard six and 120 will be increased to 122 and 127 inches respectively.

THE most notable improvement in the 1938 automobile probably will be the radical departure from the conventional gear shift.

The change finds the gear shift lever being placed on the steering wheel or dashboard, where the flick of a finger can operate it. Women, particularly, will welcome this innovation.

Proof of the practicability of the change is the fact that the example, set by Hudson and Terraplane, has been followed by fully a half dozen other makes of car.

Chrysler has developed a new

type of seat cushion and seat backs in an effort to produce more comfortable riding qualities.

Nash brings out one of the newest of all ideas—air conditioning. The automobile world eagerly awaits the outcome of this experiment.

Nearly all cars in the low-price range will be roomier, faster, and are expected to give slightly better gasoline mileage.

The smallest car on the market will be the American Bantam, made by the Austin Co., which has produced an automobile claimed to be capable of doing 60 miles to the gallon of gas.

with an operating expense of three-quarters of a cent a mile.

PAINT jobs, like clothing, are running the entire range of colors. The drab, somber, solid shades of the depression period have given way to bright and light hues. Red, light green, various shades of blue, yellow, and cream will be popular.

Prices, of course, continue to range through low, medium and high priced levels. But every manufacturer appears to guarantee one thing in common—improvement in design, comfort and performance.

Public Health Was Subject Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

Louis P. Dodson of Amarillo discussed the question of public health at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. George Taylor was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker.

Mr. Dodson stated that the U. S. Public Health Service was starting a vast program of educating the people as to the necessity of public health. This service was the first department of government organization, and the Marine Hospital was the first public institution established in the nation.

The State Health Department in Texas has grown very rapidly since it was established in 1909 with only six employees. Working under this department are the city and county health officers, who have great powers under the law. Since September the force of the department has been doubled in Texas due to the fact that the U. S. government matches dollars with Texas in order to improve the service. Six districts are maintained in the state, with Floydada the headquarters for this district.

Among the services rendered are: inspection of drug stores, grocery stores, bakeries, dairies, barbers, beauty parlors, water supply, sewage disposal, swimming pools, and the maintenance of vital statistics. Mr. Dodson highly complimented Canyon on the interest taken in public health. "Your present city commission has done more to protect the health of the people than all past city administrations," stated the speaker.

Mr. Dodson pointed out the fact that regular inspections are made in Canyon of milk supply, food and drug stores; that the city is 100% in sewer connections; that the sewer disposal system meets the requirements of the state; that Canyon is one of 25 towns in the state with fully approved water supply; and one of the 23 towns in the state with milk rating above 90%.

District Governor Edd McLaughlin of Ralls will visit the club next Tuesday.

Irby Carruth announced the Homecoming program for W. T. Friday and Saturday and urged that all citizens attend. The Friday night entertainment will be of special interest. Five bands will play in a parade of the streets of Canyon just before the game Saturday afternoon.

President Joe Hill stressed the importance of a large number of citizens attending the program at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning when Senator R. A. Stuart will speak. Senator Stuart is an ex of W. T. and is now president of the Board of Regents. He is the most active head that the Board of Regents has ever had.

Visitors present were: John McCarty, Dr. R. Thomsen, both of Amarillo; Paul Foeter of Hereford; Dr. R. P. Jarrett, Miss Ruth Cross and Miss Helen Hickman, all of Canyon.

demand of the Governor that additional taxes be raised. Many members of the legislature, in the House as well as in the Senate, have expressed bitter opposition to increasing the tax levies.

The session will end next Tuesday, and action on appropriations must be taken by the end of this week if the threat to reduce the present appropriations bills is carried out.

Clubs who plan floats in the parade are Tri-Tau, the Baptist Student Council, Spanish Club, women physical education majors, the T-Anchor Farm boys, and the Methodist Young People. Three high school bands, Buffalo Band, and the newly organized pep squad will also be included in the parade.

The football queen, Fernie Fry, who was elected by members of the football squad at noon yesterday will be given a seat of honor at the football game.

experienced reserves ready than do the Buffaloes.

"We won't be at full strength against West Texas," Coach Jenks Simmons writes, "but we'll have enough reserve strength to give them a game and if they're not too tough this year we'll get some revenge for last year's drubbing we received."

The Rangers feature open play, with much passing and many laterals. Very few first downs have been made against them this season. Like the Buffaloes, however, they have lost several games by narrow margins.

Miss Orpa Dennis was in Dallas last week end attending to business. While there she visited with Miss Sadie Kate Bass, former Home Demonstrator of this county, who is now located at Denton.
